

In Memory of Professor Thomas Wolff

Tom Wolff was killed in an automobile accident on July 31, 2000 at the prime age of 46 and at the height of his mathematical career. He was one of the founding editors of Communications in Analysis and Geometry and had significant influence on the success of the journal. The Publisher and the Editorial Board are saddened by his death and would like to express their appreciation of his contribution by dedicating this issue in his memory.
